

DviDala , the dancing Duo

Smt. Sridevi Jagannath and Smt. Rohini Ananth are Sattriya dancers and Sri Vaishnavites. Trained in two classical dance forms of India, Bharathanatyam and Sattriya, they are now striving to promote and propagate the Sattriya dance, the living tradition of Assam. They are the Disciples of Adhyapak Dipankar Arandara and Adhyapak Dipjyoti Das in Sattriya (Kamala Bari Thul) and disciples of Guru Padmini Ravi and Guru Shobna Bhalchandra in Bharathanatyam.

Sridevi and Rohini began their Sattriya Journey online with their Guru. Their keen interest and dedication has brought them this far. Blessed with natural gift for the art, and unyielding single-minded devotion, they are slowly carving a niche for themselves in this art form.

Alongside learning Sattriya, they are also learning about the being trained to speak Assamese by their gurus, to enable them to understand and savour the richness of the compositions of Sattriya. Ardently engaged in learning, presentation, promotion and propagation of Sattriya dance, the 600-year-old cultural legacy of Assam, they are all set to take up translations of many texts from Assamese to English.

Natyananjini centre for arts in Singapore recognized their service and bestowed the title “ NATYA SARVABOUMA” in 2022.
